

NATURE WALK “BEHIND THE LINES” INSIDE THE FORT ORD IMPACT AREA

Interested in seeing future lands of the Bureau of Land Management at Fort Ord? Consider joining the U.S. Army Fort Ord Cleanup and BLM staff in a nature walk around an area that was burned in 2008 and cleared of ordnance and explosives in 2009.

Save the Date: Saturday April 24 10AM

Reservations are required! After you’ve registered, we will provide a map and directions to our meeting location. Estimated time for hike: 1-2 hours. Elevation gain: 120 ft. Distance: 1.5 miles. Bring water, snack, and shoes with good treads.

Rain will cancel, but call Melissa Broadston at 393-1284 or 901-5730 if in doubt.

To ensure that your experience is enjoyable, please remember:

- For all hikes, wear boots or sturdy walking shoes appropriate for dirt and gravel roads.
- Dress in layers. The weather can be unpredictable. No matter what season it is, be prepared for rain, wind, fog, or sun.
- Carry ample water to drink.
- Restrooms will be available at the parking lot, but not available during the hike. Please plan accordingly.
- Dogs (except service animals) are not allowed.
- This activity is not recommended for participants under the age of 8.
