

The MONTEREY INSTITUTE and the Environmental Task Force invites you to celebrate

Earth Day 2006

Friday, April 21, 2006

Location: Holland Student Center, 440 Van Buren Street

Time: 10:00 am - 4 pm

- Event booths w/ local environmental organizations and businesses
- Music
- Food

And more.....

Debates on current issues by Monterey Institute Professors:

- Is economic growth good for the environment?
- The WTO, agriculture, and the environment
- Should you buy local? Organic? And local economics.

Participating Organizations: Monterey Bay Aquarium, Friends of the Sea Otter, Sierra Club, Surfrider Foundation, Central Avenue Bakery, Agriculture and Land-Based Training Association, Sustainable Monterey County, Green Party of Monterey County, City of Monterey, Cal-Am, Sustainability Academy, Association of Environmental Professionals, Monterey Salinas Transit, Watsonville Wetlands Watch, Trader Joe's and others.....