

Legend

- Approximate Extent of Burial Pits
- Saturated Area
- Removal Grid

NOTE:

1. Area of burial pits represents 3% of total Saturated Area.

|                                                                                             |      |                                                                                                                          |                        |           |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------|-----------|
|                                                                                             |      |                                                                                                                          |                        |           |
| REVISION                                                                                    | DATE | DESCRIPTION                                                                                                              | CHKD                   | APPR      |
|                                                                                             |      | Department of the ArmySacramento District, Corps of EngineersSacramento, California                              |                        |           |
| DESIGNED:K. SIEMANNDRAWN:K. BLACKCHECKED:P. KELSALLSUBMITTED: _____ |      | FIGURE 5-1APPROXIMATE EXTENT OF PITSIN SATURATED AREAFORMER FORT ORD, CALIFORNIA |                        |           |
| SCALE:                                                                                      | DATE | SHEET                                                                                                                    | FILE No.               | SPEC. No. |
|                                                                                             |      |                                                                                                                          | MRS16_SatZone_pits.mxd |           |